
Fundraising Volunteer

NSEN needs to acquire more funding to keep moving forward and developing our programs. We are looking for someone who is passionate about developing action plans for moving forward and seeking out different avenues of funding

Who we are looking for:

- A professional and responsible individual who can create budgets, timelines, and create methods of impact/evaluation
- Experience in writing reports
- Responsible, creative and innovate in planning events, researching grants, or other fundraising ideas

Required tasks:

- Research and present ideas for new funding grants, projects, events to board of directors
- Draft and submit applications as needed
- Collaborate with other groups and businesses to raise funds and/or build partnerships
- Attend meetings and work collaboratively with board of directors
- Respond to emails as required